

CHABAD OF PENN WYNNE'S

4th Annual
GALA
RECEPTION

MONDAY, JUNE 4, 2018 • 21 SIVAN 5778

Tribute Journal

*The Lubavitcher Rebbe
Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson of Righteous Memory*

The Rebbe's legacy of unconditional love for people knows no bounds.

To the Rebbe, they all belonged.

He made everyone feel at home.

To the Rebbe, there are no divisions among the Jewish People.

Every Jew is family.

Jewish unity is not a slogan, a wish or a promise, it's a way of life.

It is his message of Jewish unity,

"that not one of us is complete unless all of us are included,"
that goes to the very core and essence of the Rebbe's leadership.

It is this concept that motivates the Rebbe's emissaries around the world and it is the core belief of Chabad of Penn Wynne.

Dear Friends,

Welcome to our 4th Annual Gala, the Gala is our main fundraising event of the year, so your being here really does make a difference.

Our mission is to make sure every Jew in our community feels at home at Chabad, so that they can discover their Judaism in a warm and welcoming atmosphere. We try our best to attract all segments of our community. The results are, our classes do not require prior knowledge of Judaism, our services are warm and welcoming and do not require a Hebrew reading background, our events are fun for the whole family. Of course it is quite costly to run our operation, but in an effort to encourage anyone who wants to join us, we do not pass on that cost. We are only able to do through your continued support.

Our model has brought us much success and I am confident it will only continue, but today I turn to you and thank you for joining us tonight, and encourage you to please continue supporting us throughout the year, so that we can continue to provide our vital service of keeping Judaism alive, well and fun for the next generation.

OUR HONOREES

Alan & Wendy Goldfurr

Alan and Wendy have been involved with Chabad of Penn Wynne all the way back to the days when it was known as Ahavas Yisroel. Both Alan and Wendy were brought up in Conservative Jewish homes in the suburbs but became Baalei Teshuvah with the help of Rabbi Zalman and Miriam Gerber over 25 years ago. They were married in 1980, and raised their three children in Overbrook Park, and are now Zeidy and Bubby to nine wonderful grandchildren. They volunteer and help Rabbi Moshe and Devorah Brennan and the Shul in any way they can, and are delighted by the growth of the Shul and the community over the past few years.

Joshua & Tamar Runyan

A native of the area, Joshua was introduced to Tamar, a Canadian transplant, at Lubavitch House at Penn by Rabbi Ephraim Levin. After marrying, they settled in Bala Cynwyd and started their family. Joshua worked as the news editor for the Jewish Exponent, while Tamar launched the Mitzvah Factory Preschool for Chabad of the Main Line, led by Rabbi Shraga Sherman. It was here that they began their long friendship with Rabbi Moshe and Devorah Brennan.

For a decade, the Runyans were on the move, first to Israel in 2006, then Fort Lauderdale, FL, and then on to Baltimore. Along the way Josh received his Semicha (Rabbinical Ordination) and together with Tamar, founded the news division of Chabad.org and opened a flight school. Early on, Tamar earned her master's degree from Drexel University. Josh became editor-in-chief of the Baltimore Jewish Times in 2013.

Two years ago, they returned to where it all started, finding the Penn Wynne community the perfect place to call home. Today, Josh, a rising third-year law student at Temple University, is the senior editorial director of Mid-Atlantic Media as well as the editor-in-chief of the Jewish Exponent, and maintains final editorial control over the Jewish News in Phoenix, the Pittsburgh Jewish Chronicle, the Washington Jewish Week and the Baltimore Jewish Times. Tamar, who has spent the last two years teaching at Caskey Torah Academy of Greater Philadelphia, will be attending PCOM in pursuit of her psychology doctorate. Their nine children are students at Cheder Chabad of Philadelphia, Caskey Torah Academy and Kosloff Torah Academy.

CONGRATULATIONS TO

*Rabbi Moishe and Devorah
Brennan*

On all their accomplishments over the past several years. They have done an incredible amount of work in a short period of time, which has transformed our Shul and community. They have been and continue to be an inspiration to so many people.

Personally, Moishe has taught me to go outside my comfort zone, and has helped me grow as a Jew and as a man.

You both should have continued success in all of your endeavors, and all of your goals should come to fruition.

Thank you more than words can say,

Alan & Wendy Goldfuss

Dear Mom and Dad/Bubby and Zeidy,

After almost 38 years of marriage and residence in Overbook Park, we are so proud that your steadfast loyalty and dedication to the Chabad of Penn Wynne shul and local community has been recognized. We are grateful for your example and your constant support and are inspired by your drive to always grow and learn together. You always see the good in people and in every situation, and even in the tough times, your positivity shines through. Your tenacity to your faith and to each other and your family keeps you strong.

That strength makes you a pivotal part of the Chabad of Penn Wynne community and a pillar for its growth. May you enjoy many more years of growth together, growth in your family, and growth in your community.

All you need is love, love, love is all you need. (Lennon - McCartney)

P.S. Thanks for babysitting :)

אילן במה אברכך, שיהיו פירותיך מתוקין,
הרי פירתך מתוקין, שיהא צילך נאה,
הרי צלך נאה. אלא יהי רצון שכל נטיעותיך יהיו כמותך

Tree, tree, how can I bless you? That your fruit may be sweet--it is already sweet; that you should afford plenty of shade--you already have shade; that a spring may be near you--even that you have. The one thing left me which I can wish for you is, that all trees planted from your seed may be as fruitful as you are. Gemara Ta'anis(5b-6a)
